Welcome Friend - we look forward to your being a sponsor of the Capitol Hill Village Gala!

Please celebrate our success with us! Join us for Lights, Camera, Action! as we celebrate Hollywood, great movies, and American glamour on March 4th, 2017 at Gallaudet University's beautiful Kellogg Events Center and Hotel. Our Hollywood-themed gala will include all the elements of a star-studded evening of fun, celebrity and celebration. I hope you will join us as a sponsor!

Our event is lining up to be terrific fun and filled with celebration. We have fabulous music from across the decades cued, decorations to amaze you, and a few thematic surprises guaranteed to make the event truly memorable! You can even be Gala co-sponsor with your own Hollywood Star! Your sponsorship will put your organization's work in the spotlight among your peers and community members.

This event will kick off of Capitol Hill Village's 10th Anniversary. As a part of this, we are going to honor ten special community members without whom, we would not be the fine organization providing essential services to seniors. Capitol Hill Village is a model for a grassroots response to support our country's aging population in a dignified and resource-efficient way. Continually improving, we are expanding and refining our services, including new membership pilots, new service types, increased educational programs and ever-broadening partnerships. At the same time, we are taking on a larger role across local and national discussions around aging, health and fitness, housing and the financial impacts of the fastest growing segment of our population—those over 60. And remember, Capitol Hill Village programs serve all members of our community, reducing reliance on public resources.

I know that you understand and support our vital work both because you believe in serving individuals and in developing sustainable national practices. We would love your organization as a sponsor of our 2017 gala. I invite you to be a sponsor at which ever level fits your needs.

The gala will include a live auction and a number of our celebrated Salon Dinners for your bidding. You and your guests can bid on vacations across the country and globe fine wines and win dinner parties with celebrities, political and historic figures.

This event is a celebration of our success and a tribute to our partners. More importantly though, it is an opportunity to increase awareness around and raise funds to support Capitol Hill Village, the nation's leading Village that provides an array of services and activities dedicated to support seniors aging in the community. I hope you will be a sponsor for this event and be a part of our team.

Let me know that you will join us for this great event. Please complete your sponsorship materials today to confirm your participation.

Warmly,

Molly Singer
